Archdiocese of Omaha Bioethics Conference featuring National Speakers
August 24-25, 2012
Creighton Harper Center

Join Archbishop George J. Lucas, the Family Life Office, and the Catholic Medical Association of Omaha for the Archdiocese of Omaha Bioethics Conference, featuring speakers from the National Catholic Bioethics Center (NCBC). Topics include important beginning and end of life topics. This two-day conference will be held at Creighton’s Harper Center on August 24 and 25, 2012, with a keynote talk for the general public by Dr. John Hass, president of the NCBC, on the evening of August 24 followed by a networking reception.

This conference is open to all clergy, physicians, allied health professionals, and the general public. Registration for one day, two days, or the evening keynote and reception will open June 1.

Special pricing will be offered for clergy and medical students. CME’s and CEU’s will be available.

For more information, contact Elizabeth Murphy in the Family Life Office: emmurphy@archomaha.org, 402-551-9003, ext. 1323.

Hotel Accommodations

We have secured a special conference rate at the Hampton Inn in downtown Omaha (1212 Cuming St).

This hotel is an easy distance from the airport and conference location. Complimentary 24 hour shuttle service is available to and from the airport. The shuttle will also make several trips a day to and from the Harper Center during the conference.

The hotel features a complimentary beverage area and continental breakfast.

In order to receive the group rate of $109 per night, reservations need to be made by August 2. For more information and to book your hotel room, please call the Hampton Inn at 402-345-5500 and mention the “Archdiocese of Omaha Bioethics Conference.”
