PURPOSE

The Creighton University School of Medicine endorses the policy of the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education which prohibits the inclusion of any restrictive covenants or non-compete clauses for residents or fellows.

SCOPE

The policy applies to Creighton University School of Medicine and Creighton University residents, fellows and their respective training programs.

DEFINITIONS

- ACGME: The body responsible for accrediting the majority of graduate medical training programs (i.e., internships, residencies, and fellowships, aka subspecialty residencies) for physicians in the United States. It is a non-profit private council that evaluates and accredits medical residency and internship programs.

POLICY

The Creighton University School of Medicine endorses the policy of the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education which prohibits the inclusion of any restrictive covenants or non-compete clauses for residents or fellows.

It is the policy that no Creighton Graduate Medical Education program will ask for a commitment by a resident or fellow on a non-compete or restrictive covenant clause as a contingency of graduate medical education training.

Residents and fellows are advised that they cannot sign a non-compete or restrictive covenant clause in conjunction with any Creighton University documents. Residents and fellows must immediately advise the Graduate Medical Education office if they are asked to sign such a document.
